Autism North West presents
‘Living, Loving and Thriving with Aspergers’ with spectrum author
Rudy Simone

A one-day conference in Manchester, for everyone interested in finding out more about ‘Female Aspergers, Employment and Relationships’ organised by Autism North West

Tuesday 29th May, 2012

(Friends Meeting House, 6 Mount St, Manchester M2 5NS)

If you are in a relationship with a woman who has Asperger’s Syndrome (AS) you might find some of their behaviour a little mysterious. Females with AS are often not attuned to sharing their emotions and thoughts with a partner but that doesn’t mean they don’t want to make meaningful personal connections.

Rudy Simone covers 22 common areas of confusion for someone dating a female with AS and includes advice from her own experience and from other partners in real relationships. She talks with humour and honesty about the quirks and sensitivities that you may come across when getting to know your partner. All the pivotal relationship landmarks are discussed, including the first date, sex, and even having children.

This is a must-have handbook written by an Aspergirl for Aspergirls, young and old. Rudy Simone guides you through every aspect of both personal and professional life, from early recollections of blame, guilt, and savant skills, to friendships, romance and marriage. Employment, career, rituals and routines are also covered, along with depression, meltdowns and being misunderstood. Including the reflections of over thirty-five women diagnosed as on the spectrum, as well as some partners and parents, Rudy identifies recurring struggles and areas where Aspergirls need validation, information and advice. As they recount their stories, anecdotes, and wisdom, she highlights how differences between males and females on the spectrum are mostly a matter of perception, rejecting negative views of Aspergirls and empowering them to lead happy and fulfilled lives.
